

Improvements to Linnwood Water Treatment Plant Underway Fall 2014

NEW: Pipes and valves are being installed so that water can be pumped to the conventional treatment process without flowing through the ozone building piping

Conventional Treatment includes coagulation, flocculation, sedimentation, biologically active filtration, chlorine disinfection, fluoridation, corrosion control, and chloramine protection